And it only goes one way, as I have seen many write-ups where the original price tag is $25,000 and the retail price of the same vehicle is $33,000. But how can this be? One company, if you can believe it, is willing to build an all-electric vehicle for just over $25k, about a quarter of what the Nissan Leaf starts at. I'm speaking of the Germany-based firm Venturi Automobiles. Inventor of the Futura and a designer of the legendary Volkswagen Beetle, Massimo Tamburi has a very bright future ahead of him. He is very well-connected, and he has already launched a high-profile design contest that asks fans for their creative input on the next great front-engine, front-drive car. The prize for the winner is a whopping $25,000 and that money is bankable from a company that manufactures cars. Over the last few years the average price of an Altima has been about $21,000. That
